Message from GCRN Chair...

GILLIAN HARRIOT MS, RD, LD

Hello GCRN members,

We are happy to present our third GCRN conference of this year soon! While we aimed to host this conference in-person, unfortunately we faced roadblocks with obtaining and securing a location for the event. That being said, we are excited for everyone to participate virtually again!

For all those interested in attending, please mark your calendars for September 23rd, 2022. Details of the conference is enclosed including the agenda. I highly encourage attendance as our planned programs are incredibly insightful. Be sure to register starting August 26th in Zoom Events to access all Zoom live meetings and recordings. The registration link will be emailed to you soon. Keep in mind registration closes once the meeting begins, so register EARLY! Recordings will be available immediately following each live session and available for 30 days. Our agenda offers five (5) CEUs, which will be in addition to the prior CEUs that we have offered in our last two conferences.

We hope everyone has been enjoying the conferences so far, and are finding the CEUs helpful. Thank you for your membership, and we hope to see you all soon.
